AROUND THE WORLD.

Departure from Java--Mischievous and Sympathetic Monkeys.

The Straits of Macassar and the Island of Celebes--A Vision of 1800.

The Pelew Islands--A Romance of Captivity and Rescue.

For The Tribune.

We took on board a dozen monkeys and two or three small apes, at Sa-ma-rang (accent strongly on the middle syllable), and I never tired of watching their amusing antics. The largest belonging to me was a venerable old chap, with all the gravity of one of Napoleon's "vieux ministres"; and, though it was the first time the transmigration of sapea (which I very much believe) had been in former times of "Bon Bolt" had been in former times of the King discovered their treachery. Marsh sent his love back to his wife, both about to become parents; and the charms of home and matrimony were too sweet for him to leave. I purchased a ship on a former voyage to Java, and presented him to a bosom friend who was a bookkeeper in a large Liquor-house in Maiden Lane, New York. He was shut up in one of the lots on Saturday night, and, when the "boss" came into the store on Monday morning, he noticed a purling around the store, and, turning to his clerk, he asked him what it was. "Melted snow, I suppose," said the reply. Looking up at the ceiling, and seeing that dripping also, the "boss" touched his finger in the melted snow, and applied it to his lips, he exclaimed, almost in amazement.

A WINTER-RESORT.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

OCEAN SPRINGS, Miss., Oct. 6.—I desire, through the medium of your valuable paper, to call the attention of the people of your city and residents of the lake-region especially to the great advantages of the Gulf-coast of Mississippi as a place of winter-resorts for the invalid and pleasure-seeker.

Little or no effort has been made recently to popularize this coast as a place of winter-resort; and almost all winter-travel from the North, for the past few winters, has been directed to Florida, which has been made the winter-resort of hundreds of thousands, as the only place in the South known and appreciated by Northern people. While the beneficial influence of the climate of Florida cannot be denied, there is no doubt that the Gulf-coast of Mississippi offers greater attractions to persons spending a winter in the South, either for health or pleasure, than can be found in any other part of the United States. On this coast are six watering-places, or resorts for tourists, at present occupied by Southerners in summer, but, until last winter, little known or visited by Northerners.

Of Ocean Springs, either as a health or pleasure resort, is conceded by all to be the best in the country. The sea is warm and the air dry; the water is clear and transparent; the sun is bright; the sky is blue; the atmosphere is invigorating; the climate is equable; the temperature needs no acclimation. It was specially captured, and sold to a French gentleman bound for New Orleans, who, I doubt not, found the mildness and salubrity of the place a most refreshing change if not a profitable investment.

BEN BOLT,

my last purchase, possessed a fund of humor, and a ready wit; and I have seen him smile, ay and weep too—was a source of infinite amusement to all on board.

And now I am going to relate a fact, and, if it may seem trivial, yet it is true. Mr. John C. Jones, of David, said that it was an actual occurrence, which passed under my own and several others' observation.

It is a well-known fact that monkeys do not or can not swim; and, in fact, will not even get near water, unless compelled to do so.

They said that they offices of the several agents there, I went to the friend who told them they should do their interests expressed their interest in my doing so. The simple leave became the position one; indeed, it was quite unusual, and I determined to make the most of it.

At the top of the stairs, I went to the friend who told me to leave, and, when I did so, he said, "Come back to me, and I will do my best to help you." And, at that last, I was obliged to go down the stairs, and, as I went down, I said, "Good-bye, and I will come back to you." And, when I did so, he said, "Come back to me, and I will do my best to help you."

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1876.

Greenbacks at the New York Gold Exchange yesterday closed at 91 1/2.

Two inches of snow had fallen at Marquette, Upper Michigan, yesterday at dusk, with a prospect of a depth of six inches before daylight this morning.

Increased Democratic majorities in West Virginia are shown as the returns come in.
The political disabilities of a large number of disenchanted Confederates have been removed in that State since the last election.

Politically speaking, Ohio and Indiana continue to get farther away from each other.
Revised returns in the former show a Republican majority of 10,000 for the State ticket, and in Indiana William's majority is increased to about 5,000.

At yesterday's session of the Rock River Conference a glowing tribute to the memory of the late Bishop JONES was spread upon the records of the Conference, and Bishop EVAN was delivered an address upon his life and character of his eminent confidant.

Notice was yesterday given of the intention of the counsel for ALEXANDER SULLIVAN, indicted for the murder of Mr. FRANCIS HAN-RICK, to apply for a change of venue, on the ground that all the Cook County Judges except one, and he is not now presiding in the Criminal Court, are prejudiced against the defendant. This is a sweeping allegation to make, but it will suffice to secure delay.

Arrangements have been perfected for an active political campaign in Pennsylvania during the next three weeks. A large list of speakers has been secured by both parties, and the canvas is to begin in earnest forthwith. The result in Indiana has encouraged the Democrats to put forth strong efforts in Pennsylvania, and the Republicans, while not admitting the possibility of losing the State in November, have no intention of neglecting the canvass.

There is some show of activity in military circles in the Black Hills country, and some necessity for it, too, judging from the numerous reports of Indian depredations in that region. Gen. MERRITT, with 500 soldiers, has started on an expedition, the destiny of which has not been made known, though it is supposed there is a party of hostile somewhere among the Hills who can be induced to wait for the troops to come and fight them. Some such arrangement as this would seem to be necessary in order to patch up the military reputations damaged by the abortive summer campaign.

Among all the nominations that have been made in this county, not one was more fitting than that of Mr. ERIC DIETZEN, our esteemed German fellow-citizen, for Coroner.
It is not alone because he has filled the office to the entire satisfaction of the people of this county, but because he is a hard-working, energetic, faithful, honest, and whole-souled man. No charge of any description has ever been made against him. We cannot estimate too highly the services of such a public officer. It would not be an underserv-ice to his worth were he to receive the unanimous vote of all parties as a "well done, good and faithful servant." Among his own countrymen, who are best acquainted with his merits, he is universally popular.
He is hardly less so among other nationalities.
As our local "scholar in politics," who is versed not only in "Cromer's quest law," but in all departments of knowledge, from cooking to metaphysics, we predict that he will receive a unanimous majority.

The new gospel according to TILDEN, "We must carry every Southern State at all hazards," is being preached with great vigor and effect by the Confederates in Georgia and South Carolina. Gen. M. W. GALT, one of the most effective and popular orators in the field for TILDEN and HAMPTON, is an outspoken advocate of the shot-gun policy. In a speech delivered on the 6th of October Gen. GALT recommended a graded system of election-ing which should begin with the shooting of Gov. CHAMBERLAIN, Senator PATTERSON, and Congressman ELLIOTT, next the native white Republicans, and finally the black leaders in general. The State must be carried for TILDEN and HAMPTON "at all hazards;" in short, says Gen. GALT, "if it becomes necessary to shoot them [the white and colored Republicans] in order to remove them, we must be prepared to shoot rather than be prevented from redeeming the State from Radical rule." This is the precise language of a prominent Democratic stump-speaker, and the proof is not wanting to show that in performance of this plan it is the settled purpose of the Democratic rifle clubs to vote early in the morning of election-day, and to devote the remainder of the day to patrolling the roads and preventing the negroes from going to the polls. This is the South Carolina plan, and there is no question of its having been fully matured and definitely determined upon.

The Chicago produce markets were irregular yesterday. Provisions were dull and firm. Meats purchased 50¢ to 55¢ per lb. lower, at $16.12 to $16.12 for October, and $14.50 lower the year. Lard closed dull, and

We publish in another column a letter from the brother-in-law of Lew STEWARD, the Democratic-Greenback candidate for Governor in this State, making charges too serious in their nature to be passed unnoticed by the person against whom they are directed, especially when that person is seeking a high official position. Unquestionably allowance must be made for strong personal feeling on the part of the brother-in-law, which has influenced him to heighten the coloring in his accusations. But after making allowance for all this distortion and discoloration, there remains enough behind—if not promptly and satisfactorily refuted—to disguise every right-thinking person. To put in the gubernatorial chair a man whose character was assailed by such unanswerable charges, would be to put a stigma and disgrace upon Illinois for which no party could afford to be responsible. It is all the more surprising that the Democracy should cling to a man weighed down by such accusations as these. The Republican party has been compelled to sell 6 per cent at nearly 20 per cent discount. The Republican party has failed to inspire mankind with confidence
to such a degree that the Government has been able to borrow at $800,000,000, at 4½ per cent interest, with which to take up an equal amount of outstanding 6 per cent bonds. He has also the assurance that, no change taking place in the policy of the Government, after this exchange shall be completed a loan at 4 per cent can be negotiated with which to take up all the remaining 6 per cent bonds
then outstanding.

The country has not been unmindful of this success, which is, all things considered, equal to the success of the War for the Union. It was a victory of the most difficult character. The United States, at no time previous to the War, had ever succeeded in obtaining a loan for any considerable amount at less than 6 per cent interest. In Buchanan's days 6 per cent bonds sold at least 10 per cent. Until the Republican party had got rid of Jonson, the Treasury had been compelled to sell 6 per cent at nearly 20 per cent discount. The Republican party has failed to inspire mankind with confidence
to such a degree that the Government has been able to borrow at $800,000,000, at 4½ per

The explanation does not explain. Not only is this true with regard to his evasion of his income tax, but it is true in all directions.
He has not explained his disloyal conduct during the War. He has not explained his swindling of trademarks by pleading the statute of limitations. He has not explained his connection with the swindling of Michigan miners with wild-cat shippers. He has not explained his railroad wrecking operations.
He has not explained his connection with the Twinx gang in stuffing ballot-boxes and stealing the vote of New York State. His own friends are beginning to be perplexed.
Some of them have grown discouraged.
Many of them are getting disgusted. Among the latter is the Fifteenth Ward TILDEN and HENDRICKS Club of New York City, which has bolted the ranks en masse and TILDEN refuses to explain some things and fails to explain others. This Club met on the 6th inst., 300 in number, and reported that inasmuch as TILDEN had failed to explain the charges made against him, they would tender their services to the Republican party and support the Republican candidate.
On the 9th inst., they raised a HAYES and WHENELL flag in place of the Twinx banner at their headquarters, because they are tired of waiting for him to explain. In the face of such encouragement as this, let these charges be pressed home. Let this man who has failed to explain his party's conduct and defending of the Government be held up in his true light before the people. The fact that he has not explained is not to be covered up by howling for reform. Mr. TILDEN stands branded with the charge of personal dishonesty. If he can remove that brand, why does he not do so?

THE NEW ALLEGHENY STATE.

It will bear repetition to say that the centre of the political battle is removed to the centre of the country. The loss of Indiana to the Republicans makes it not impossible, but rather difficult, to figure out the election of HAYES and WHENELL without the assistance of the Government. They have been able to borrow at $800,000,000, at 4½ per cent interest, with which to take up an equal amount of outstanding 6 per cent bonds
then outstanding.

The following State may be considered morally certain to cast their Electoral votes for the Republican Presidential nominees, and one of them—Colorado—is already secured:

Colorado.....	3 Rhode Island.....
21 South Carolina.....	7
7 Iowa.....	5 Wisconsin.....
Kansas.....	5 California.....
Maine.....	7 Florida.....
Michigan.....	11
Minnesota.....	5 Stars for HAYES.....
Nevada.....	174
3 New Jersey.....	5 Nevada.....
6 New Hampshire.....	5
Ohio.....	20 Necessary to choice 185
Pennsylvania.....	20 Necessary to choice 185

It is possible the Republicans may fail to change the Government by expanding the issue of greenbacks or the issue of bonds to men who carried on the War to destroy the Union. We do not believe the Northern people are disposed to change the Government that they are looking forward to a heady, permanent improvement—to destroy all this by making a change of Government, that the "Solid South" may be paid its losses in its own way.

Prince Lichtenstein and Prince Mallett, of the Dredging Company, were here yesterday morning and went immediately West by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad to buy planks.

Supervising-Arbitrator A. B. Mullett, of the Dredging Company, arrived in the city yesterday. During the day he visited Supt. Burling at the new Custom-House, and the went over the building on a tour of inspection. Mr. Mullett will remain in the city two or three days.

A series of meetings for the benefit of the Poor Orphans will be held at the Managers of the Asylum (175 Burling street), at intervals of four weeks during the winter, commencing Thursday evening, Oct. 17. Dancing free of charge. No refreshments. Single admission 50 cents.

The Pastoral Aid Society of Trinity (Episcopal) Church, was to have held a meeting yesterday. But the rain kept the ladies home. Only a half a dozen were present, so the laying out of the work for the committee was deferred until next Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Odilia Blinn left last evening for Savannah, Ga., to work among the sufferers from yellow fever. She carries letters from prominent men in the city, who generously passed to Louisville by Mr. E. Gallin, General Western Passenger Agent for the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad.

JAMES GILLIS, an employee at the United States Post Office, 200 W. Adams street, while at work accidentally caught his foot in a hole in the flooring and sustained a fracture of the right ankle in the fall. He was removed to his residence, No. 37 Adams avenue, where he was attended by Dr. Atkins.

CORNER DITZEL yesterday held an inquest upon an unknown man who died at the County Hospital from injuries received in falling from a scaffold. The physician on duty said the man fell during the removal of a scaffold which had been built up to the roof of the building. The man's name was McAllister, and at 10 o'clock this morning the claimant having obtained a new trial, the case was successfully last week.

The fire report for the month of September, kept by the Fire Department, shows the following: Total fires, 1,250; Fire damage, $1,250,000, all to be the damages accrued to metropolitan block by the construction of the fire. The amount lost in the buildings which were lost, but sufficient evidence was secured by the fire in Matsushige & Co.'s furniture factory, Nos. 238 and 241 Canal street.

Mr. Adams, a lawyer in San Francisco, who was well-known in Chicago a few years ago as a civil engineer, and Principal of a flourishing school for engineers. The lawyer's name is also contained several very interesting articles and gives promise of occupying an important position as an exponent of applied mathematics on the Pacific coast.

CLERK 2. GORE, the lawyer who is trying to get $100,000 out of the New York Herald for life, has an office on Dearborn street in this city. The Herald reported a proceeding by a client to recover a certain amount which Gore had received. It was found that the sum was just one-half of the claim placed in his hands to collect, and the libel in which the Herald indulged was in attempting to getute the statement that "all respectable lawyers retain one-half" on collections.

There was an adjourned meeting of the Board of Managers of the Protestant Orphan Asylum at 78 Michigan avenue, yesterday afternoon. The Board still finding no time, nothing of importance was done.

The particular object intended was a series of luncheons contemplated for the benefit of the Asylum, and it was agreed to give the same on the 15th instant.

Judge Farwell will deliver his opinion and decide the question of the application for injunction in the Perot-Walker-McNeil-Agnew Court-House-stone matter at 10 o'clock this morning.

DIVINING-ROD EXPERIMENTS.

At a meeting of the Civil Engineers' Club of the Atlantic & Great Western Railroad, on the 1st floor of the City Club, Mr. L. D. Cleland, a member of the club, has been in correspondence with Mr. Lattinger with a view of having him come to Chicago and make some experiments with the road. Mr. L. D. Cleland stated to a Tribune reporter yesterday that he had some correspondence with Mr. Lattinger lately, and that there is a prospect of his coming here shortly to make the experiment. He said the claims of the road were not yet settled, and that he would like to have a trial Monday, and the witnesses have already been subpoenaed.

The old Hospital was desolated yesterday. All that remain of it now are the buildings, boilers, and a lot of old furniture, and the "Elder version" of the Divining-Rod, which attracted considerable attention at the corner of Halsted and Division streets.

The old Hospital was desolated yesterday. All that remain of it now are the buildings, boilers, and a lot of old furniture, and the "Elder version" of the Divining-Rod, which attracted considerable attention at the corner of Halsted and Division streets.

The Divining-Rod has been in correspondence with Mr. Lattinger, and that there is a prospect of his coming here shortly to make the experiment. He said the claims of the road were not yet settled, and that he would like to have a trial Monday, and the witnesses have already been subpoenaed.

The Chinese on Our Pacific Coast.

John as a Criminal—The Many Bad Traits in His Character.

His Experts in the Way of Forgery, Theft, and Gambling.

Enslaved Condition of the Coolie Immigrants—Enforced Prostitution of the Women.

PALESTINE MONOTONOUS.

Indeed, the only persons now used to put a stop to Chinese immigration are those who have a stoppage outside the door of each known place. The shape of a policeman; but this only happens in times of spasmodic activity, and has flourished especially since the opening of the Suez Canal. Sometimes the door is in the centre of a row of houses; sometimes at the extremity of a hall bounded almost as many doors as there are Coolies—houses; and sometimes again the twisted path leads out to a side of the house being reached through a trap-door by a rope ladder which is pulled up after every arrival. Raid and search have been made on these unlicensed temples of Fortune, but with results that have

will be made for basis for every paragraph.

In the letter on the Six Companies, reference was made to the difficulties experienced by the police in bringing the Chinese criminal to justice; but enough is known of John's weaknesses to enable those who have studied him to claim that he is a criminal by character.

It is well understood that in every city there is a community of Underdeals—a class to be watched—in this, even the Chinese-philistines speak of his protege's honesty with a reservation, whilst the blunt man with the club tells us unhesitatingly that every Chinaman is untrustworthy. To be sure, his experience is bounded by California; but that, too, limits our interest in the matter. At this point there is a "cloud of witnesses" claiming attention and speech.

Says Officer Duffield, familiar with the Chinese quarter for nine years:

"They are

A NATION OF THIEVES.

I have never seen one that would not steal."

Says Abram Altemeyer, boot-and-shoe manufacturer: "They will bear close watching. I think they like things whatever they can get the chance."

Says Detective Rogers, of the Chinese quarter: "I know some six or eight Chinese in town who are reliable; but they are, as a nation, dishonest."

Says Alfred Clark, Clerk of the Chief of Police: "Those violating the laws by thieving, gambling, and prostitution, are more than 90 per cent of them."

Says H. E. Ellis, Chief of the San Francisco Police: "There are about 2,000 regular criminals."

Says Charles T. Jones, District Attorney of Sacramento: "A large proportion of the Chinese here are prostitutes; turning to the criminal class when they believe it." Chinaman will steal when he gets a chance."

Says Matt Karcher, Chief of the Sacramento Police: "I would."

DO NOT GIVE ONE UNDER OATH."

It would scarcely be jeo to say that these gentlemen are victims to prejudice, and that their hot statements should be taken with a grain of salt. Besides, I have come to the conclusion that the Chinese are "a nation of all," of all the different classes of men.

Says Davis Louderback, Police Judge of San Francisco: "As witness, their veracity is of the lowest degree."

Says H. J. Murphy, District Attorney of San Francisco: "I have looked at my docket for two years, and out of 700 cases I examined before the Grand Jury—

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY CHINESE—principally burglaries, grand larcenies, and murders."

FINANCE AND TRADE.

No New Features Apparent in Local Finances.

Lighter Movement of Currency--The Clearings $3,700,000.

The Produce Markets Irregular--Provisions Dull and Easier.

Grain Firmer--Wheat Excited Over War Rumors.

FINANCIAL.

The situation among the banks was unchanged. The steady improvement in the demand for discounts continues as has been noted. The receivers of grain on the Board of Trade are borrowing more freely than a week ago. There is some complaint about the condition of the market, and numbers of applications for rentals are received on the failure of remittances expected from the interior. The condition of general business in the city is good, and new paper is offered by the banks in increasing quantity. The country banks are preparing to meet the increased demand, and are drawing liberally on their reserves here.

Rates of discount are 8@10 per cent at the banks to regular customers. Special rates are made to good outside borrowers. Business on the street is not lively. Bank rates prevail.

New York exchange was sold between banks at 700@710,000 per barrel.

The clearing was $3,700,000.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

The Commercial Agency of R. G. Dan & Co. have issued their report on the third quarter of the present year. The decrease of failure that was noticed in a comparison of the first two quarters of the year of the first, has been arrested. It will be disagreeable news to those who expected a sudden and complete recovery from the panic that the failures for the last quarter are 25 per cent more than those for the preceding one. Dan, Barlow & Co. give the following tabular statement:

Failure. Liabilities.
First quarter... 1,080,000 $186,120,000
Second quarter... 1,081,000 186,200,000
Third quarter... 2,400 187,000,000

They remark, in commenting on these figures, that the amount of liabilities, however, involved in the sales of the third quarter of the year, show a considerable decrease in proportion to the number of failures. The failure rate for the third quarter is 15.5% for each failure in the last quarter is 15.5%, against 16.5% for the second quarter. In the average of the whole seven quarters, the failure rate is 15.5% for each failure of the past three months in 65,000 less than for each failure of the first three months in 65,000. The pressure of the times, and a less number of large concerns have failed; and, secondly, that the failure of the past three months in 65,000 less than for each failure of the first three months in 65,000. Certainly it would appear from these figures that less is in debt, in proportion to the number of failures.

The comparison of the amount of new debts in all at 80,000,000 as will be seen by the following:

Failure. Liabilities.
First nine months of 1876... 7,000 $186,722,000
First nine months of 1875... 5,334 181,772,000

Increase... 1,716 $25,000,000

The favorable symptoms are described by them as follows:

Concern upon these indications, there is everywhere a decided increase in confidence, and the public party is very perceptibly gaining ground. It remains to be seen whether the real and apparent improvement in business, or much of the improved feeling to be attributed to the war, or to the general condition of the community. To attain the golden mean between these two extremes, we must wait and see.

It is, however, very certain that all the conditions of business are improving, and that the general condition of trade based upon the necessities of the people, especially in those articles which they eat, drink, and wear, has been reduced to a minimum.

The consumer had been reduced to a minimum, and the manufacturer was compelled to do what he could to do when there was no demand for his products.

Prices had reached a point at which production was profitless, resulting in general distress.

The demand, price, and supply seemed at the lowest point, and the market was at a standstill.

It is now evident that the market has been raised;

and that the market has been
